The temporary clerks entertained in acting vacancies in the Second Division and out of the lump sum grants have now to be absorbed in the vacancies in the revised Second Division of clerkships. A list of such officials who were entertained prior to 13th October 1917 is put up. A draft office Memo, appointing these men in the acting vacancies in the present Second Division is put up for approval. The proposals are strictly in the order of seniority, noted in the list. Such of the officials as have been drawing less than Rs. 30 will get the benefit of the higher minimum pay of the Second Division clerkships, with effect from 13th October 1917 under the Re-Organization Order. The name of B. Srinivasaiya is not included in the Office Memo, as he is an old official and was specially transferred to the General and Revenue Secretariat on higher pay from Devanhalli Taluk Office, for sorting the old records.

1 In connection with the recent promotions so kindly granted to some of the Second Division Clerks, I respectfully beg to invite attention to a supersession involved in respect of me and request that it may be graciously redressed as it would otherwise affect my future prospects and promotions.

2 The facts of the case are that while I joined this office on the 26th October 1917 on Rs. 20/- and earned my promotion to Rs. 25/- on 1st January 1918, I have been placed below S. Srikantiah who joined this office 10 days after me i.e. on 6th November 1917.

3 I pray therefore that you may be so good as to promote me to Rs. 30/- as in the case of some of my seniors and to place me above S. Srikantaiya in the list.
